2022 SAUVIGNON BLANC SONOMA COUNTY

This wine is both delicious and sauvignon blanc, for us, an unusual coincidence, and this a triumph of truth over prejudice. While some may find the fruit qualities a bit softer and the palate, there's a subtle quality to the fruit that lends a certain depth and complexity, with a mouthfeel that's altogether intriguing.

A reserved style of Sauvignon Blanc, with a beautifully textured and concentrated profile that highlights the softer notes of pear, apricot, peach juice, and stone fruits. The mouthfeel is just right, and the acid is well-balanced. Its object is to be as satisfying as it is to delight the jaded and go well with anything white wine goes well with. With only a little over 100 cases, so, perditus qui haesitat, who hesitates is lost, and what a shame in this case, over a wine so good that if you didn't like it, you might consider therapy.
