Sean Thackrey’s limited production gems
are among the most original expressions of winemaking in California.”*

2020 PETITE SIRAH YOLO COUNTY

Beauty often dwells in unexpected places; in this case, that place is the Dunnigan Hills and the bucolic Pheasant Glen. From proper spelling to its intentions as an earnest variety, Petite Sirah is often a grape of much debate. Too often hidden as a component in a blend (and doing the heavy lifting, no doubt!), we choose instead to offer it up fully and celebrate it entirely in this limited bottling. If not a Sirius wine, then this might instead be considered a Serious wine. Enjoy.
